The Conference Day on Thursday offers more networking opportunities as well as a programme packed with essential industry updates, informative sessions and lively debates. John Pienaar, Presenter and Chief Political Correspondent for Radio Five Live, will deliver a stimulating keynote speech, and freelance journalist and broadcaster, Paul Lewis, presenter of BBC Radio 4's Money Box, is chairing a topical afternoon debate entitled, 'Re-dressing the Balance,' which will look into the consumer credit regime.

Further highlights include an update address from the OFT's Consumer Credit Group, a panel discussion on 'Dealing with Vulnerability' with panellists from the OFT and Christians Against Poverty.
